

SUICIDE: COMMUNITY RESPONSE, RESOURCES & PREVENTION

Join us to hear Rachel Sagan, Executive Director Acton-Boxborough United Way, talk about resources for you and your family regarding suicide prevention and mental health. Rachel will discuss how our community has coped with the crises of suicide and has worked with specialists to bring effective and well-researched programming to our schools and community. Q&A to follow.

Open to the public. No charge.

Tuesday, March 26, 7 pm

In the Social Hall at Congregation Beth Elohim, 133 Prospect Street, Acton

RSVP via <http://evite.me/zdacjXsbzz>

(walk-ins who were not able to RSVP are also welcome!)

Sponsored by the CBE Sisterhood & the Acton-Boxborough United Way

